The Teen Club at Algin Sutton Recreation Center, is part of the CLASS Parks/ Youth Plus Program, and offers community involvement opportunities by way of service projects. By volunteering at health fairs, neighborhood and beach clean-ups, seasonal community programs, special events and other altruistic activities, teens learn more about themselves and their communities. Field trips to college campuses expand their horizons. Field trips to museums, plays, and cultural events broaden their cultural awareness and cultivate cultural sensitivity. Participating in teen meetings, teen councils and community meetings gives teens an opportunity to have an active role in planning their activities. Everything is either Free OR Very Low Cost.
